

to keep in mind the fact that in addition to printing this newspaper we do job work of any kind. When in need of anything in this line, see us. Write or telephone 48.

with your home merchants. They help pay the taxes, keep up the schools, build roads, and make this a community worth while. You will find the advertising of the best ones in this paper.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Joe Marshall of Niles spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall. Mrs. Lydia Frederick visited Charlie Brown in Teasdale last week. Miss Lillian Keyser of Youngstown visited her parents over Sunday. Alfred Avery of Youngstown called on friends here Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Job Hutchinson of Youngstown was a caller in the village Wednesday.

Jess Pettitt and family of Garfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ego Hall. Frank Ballantine and family of Leontia spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Woods.

The Pythian Sisters will hold a social in Thorp's hall next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lewis Gressel and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getz over Sunday.

Frank Stouffer's house was struck by lightning Friday, damaging the chimney.

Bert Weikart and family of Leontia are spending Sunday with J. C. Weikart and family.

Mrs. Reese of Millville spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Spear.

Several from here attended the picnic at Franklin Square last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller leave for Canton Friday to spend the week-end with friends.

Ira Frederick of Alliance spent Wednesday evening with his mother, Mrs. Lydia Frederick.

Mrs. Harry Vogel of Salem spent Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moore.

Mrs. Wm. King and son of Salem visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barnhart of Philadelphia spent last Friday with W. E. Roller and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIntosh attended the funeral of Mrs. Clines in Youngstown last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Teltow and children of Leontia spent Sunday afternoon here with friends.

George Sommerville, Jr., who is ill in the Salem hospital with pneumonia, is getting along nicely.

Miss Phoebe Anderson of East Liverpool was the guest of Miss Freda Paisley over Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Smith and son Dale of Leontia spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Thorp.

Mrs. Wm. Weikart, who is in the Salem hospital, underwent an operation and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Carriere were guests of the daughter, Mrs. Lentz, and family in Salem over Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Leontia called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Vaughn, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Demeter of Donora, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Salisbury, Pa., are visiting relatives here.

Carl Rosser of Wooster spent Sunday evening and Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Bosert.

Mrs. S. C. Wilson and daughter Ephra of Youngstown called on friends here last Thursday afternoon.

Michael Dixon, Tom Davison, William Allison and Alex Sneddon of Akron spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Likell and family of Salem and Miss Mollie of Michigan were guests of Mrs. Louise Vigor over Sunday.

Misses Marie and Neutis King of New Castle were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George King, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meeks and children of East Palestine spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis.

Mrs. Frank Spear entertained the Pythian Sisters' Sewing Society Wednesday night at a tag sewing. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Eighty eight couples attended the dance last Saturday evening given by the Foresters' Sporting Club. They will hold another dance in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer and son Howard motored to Youngstown Sunday and spent the day with the daughter, Mrs. Fred Denner, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Shive and daughter Gladys and Miss Leona Bell of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dalrymple and son Allen James and Mrs. Clifford Paisley of Youngstown visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Girard, Emmet Carlyle and Stuart McIntosh motored to Youngstown Sunday and visited Rev. Minster and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese of Millville are the proud parents of a fine baby boy born Sunday night. Mrs. Reese was formerly Miss Ruby Weikart of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weikart and sons Russell and George and Mrs. Claire Waggle and son Willie of Leontia were Sunday guests of Carl Weikart and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowker and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stevens and two children of Sebring and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and Sam Lindsey of Columbiana were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Johnson, Sunday.

Mrs. William Bell gave a birthday surprise party last Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter Irene's seventh birthday. About twenty-two of her little friends were pleasantly entertained with games and music. Mrs. Bell served a delicious lunch. Irene received a number of pretty gifts.

John Andrew Weikart, aged 76, died last Sunday morning after a long illness of kidney trouble. He spent his entire life in Washingtonville and was a prominent citizen. He leaves a widow, one son Byron at home and a daughter, Mrs. John Stewart, of Salem, three brothers and three sisters.

as follows: David, William and James and Mrs. William Boston and Mrs. William Betz of this place and Mrs. John Hileman of Leontia. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Lutheran church of which he was a member. Services were conducted by Rev. Richardson. Burial at Grandview cemetery, Salem. The remains of Mrs. Samuel Vaughn were brought here to the home of her brother, Lawrence Fieldhouse, Wednesday, from Wyoming. Mrs. Vaughn had an operation and died Saturday afternoon. She was the daughter of the late John Fieldhouse who passed away about a year ago. She is survived by her husband and three children, one son and two daughters, six brothers and two sisters—like George, Lawrence, Ralph, Matt and John Fieldhouse and Mrs. Eliza Louthers all of this place and Mrs. Joke Stucker of East Palestine. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Kerr, pastor of the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon with interment at the Leontia cemetery.

ISLAND

Oct. 18—Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McClun and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Calvin, who spent a month visiting and sightseeing in Chambersburg, Pa., the battlefield of Gettysburg, Lura, Va., Washington, D. C., and other eastern points, returned home Saturday and report having had a very fine time throughout their entire overland journey which they made in a Buick six without a single mishap.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Teltow and P. D. Calvin at Locust Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer, Mr. and Mrs. Baker and Mr. Thomas of Homeworth attended Sunday services at the Zion Hill church and were entertained at dinner by Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Harrold.

Harvey Good is supplying Washingtonville people with the deer.

Norman, Edith and Alta Lehman, Ezra, and Ida Witmer and Bertha Tescher were entertained Sunday by Joseph, Edith and Anna Wenger.

Thieves broke the lock on Mrs. Martha Visler's poultry house Monday night and stole forty chickens.

Mrs. Salome Weaver and daughter Melissa spent Sunday in Medina county.

Rev. D. C. Wittmer and brother John attended the Mennonite conference in Wadsworth last Friday.

David Klingensmith was in Youngstown Saturday as a republican county central committeeman.

J. M. Knopp and daughter Lizzie are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clayton Rohrer, in Wadsworth.

The German Mennonite conference held here last Friday was represented by delegates from Canada, Indiana and points in this state.

The Virginia Coal Co. is having lots of water to contend with at their new opening on the Perry Van Pelt farm.

Bertha and Mollie Lehman called on Mrs. Owen Keeling last Sunday.

J. C. Martin and wife of Columbiana and S. R. Martin and family visited at A. W. Detrow's Sunday.

Ruby Harrold of Columbiana finished his rounds Monday threshing in this territory.

Homer Culp and family of Greenford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Calvin.

Mrs. Jonas Wisler and Mrs. M. M. Ziegler called on Mrs. Martha and May Wisler, Sunday.

Farmers of this locality are furnishing O. C. Weikart with a car load of $1.50 wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ziegler and Ben Ziegler and family of North Lima spent Sunday with Adam Wenger and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burns of East Palestine and Henry Lehman and wife called on S. G. McClun and family, Sunday.

MILLVILLE

Oct. 18—Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan and daughter Zella and Miss Nellie Cowan of Salem called on friends here Sunday.

The Home Circle was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edwin Bush. Sixteen members were present.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. G. Huffman the second Thursday of November. A special meeting is called for today at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bush of Salem.

A son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese Sunday. Mr. Reese was formerly Miss Ruby Weikart of Washingtonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Oesch of Georgetown road.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Abbie Sell to celebrate the birthday of her son Leroy, who is a student at Western Reserve and came home Saturday to visit over Sunday with his mother. About 40 guests were present to remind him of his 18th birthday and a very pleasant evening was had by all present. Music and games were features of the evening.

W. A. Roller and wife celebrated their golden wedding last Wednesday. The guests included about 50 relatives besides many friends. A sumptuous dinner was served at noon. They were presented with $60 in gold besides many other beautiful gifts. An old-fashioned bellows was a closing feature of the day's enjoyment.

A daughter came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dunn last Friday.

E. E. Taylor, who resides near the Bossert mill, met with a painful accident Monday while picking apples, the ladder falling and throwing him to the ground with such force as to dislocate a shoulder and fracture several ribs. At this writing he is resting as comfortably as can be expected.

Dr. Derrus of Salem made a professional call here Monday.

Any divorce lawyer will tell you that the marriage tie is very often a formlet-knot.

You never can tell. Even the grass widow doesn't always let the grass grow under her feet.

Dispatch job printing will please you.

ELLSWORTH

Oct. 18—The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. F. L. Anderson Thursday afternoon.

Paul Mathews, who is ill with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

J. C. Skaggs and Misses McClane of Canfield called here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer of Kirk are spending several days here.

Emory Cutting and family were in Canfield Saturday night.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Louis Gosser Thursday afternoon.

Miss Hulda Gordon spent Sunday here.

The road west of the center is being graded very rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Sehon Ripley were in Salem Saturday night.

Miss Emma Hake of Canfield spent Thursday here with Miss Pauline Schafer.

Mrs. Wm. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer were in Jackson one day last week.

Leroy Anderson was in Canfield Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gray of Salem called here one day last week.

Considerable cider is being made by farmers in this locality.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Kendig of Canfield called here Friday.

Mrs. E. E. Bennett is spending a few days with her daughter in McKeesport, Pa.

Walter Bright of Akron spent Saturday and Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stiffer and Mr. and Mrs. John Schafer were in Niles, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rose of Youngstown spent Sunday here.

Douglas Brown was in Greenford Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lydia Fenstermaker is on the sick list.

Jack Milligan spent Sunday here with friends.

There was preaching in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Broadwood and son of Jackson motored here and visited friends, Sunday.

Arthur Basinger is serving on the jury in Youngstown.

Rev. C. Case went to Youngstown Monday to attend a special meeting of the educational committee of Presbytery.

The Boy Scouts spent Saturday evening at their shanty near the lake.

Rev. C. Case was in Cincinnati a day last week attending the Presbyterian Synod of Ohio meetings as a commissioner from Mahoning county and Presbytery. Mrs. Case visited in Columbus with Mrs. M. J. Stewart, an old friend of a former pastor.

A lecture is to be delivered this evening in the Presbyterian church by F. J. Warnock of Youngstown, claim agent of the M. & S. Railway Co. on the subject "Safety First". The next lecture will be Oct. 25th by Dr. B. C. Barnard of Alliance, on the subject of "Infantile Paralysis". Everyone should hear this. At a recent meeting of the West Side Improvement Club of Alliance, such interest was aroused over this lecture that all stayed an hour after the lecture questioning, etc. Attend learn about care of health.

George A. Webb, one of the oldest and most highly regarded residents of Ellsworth, died last Saturday after a short illness, although he had not been in the best of health for some time. He was 75 years of age. He was a citizen of this place for many years. He was a member of the company of the 11th Ohio Infantry, having served with distinction in Co. F, 41st O. V. I. Only four members of his company survive. He leaves his wife, one sister, Mrs. Sheldon Parker, of Salem, and one brother, Charles, of Cleveland. Funeral services held in the Methodist church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock were largely attended. Interment was made in the village cemetery.

Work is to be started shortly on many improvements at the Ellsworth lake. The water will first be drawn off so that the vegetable growth in the lake may be removed. The dam will be raised several inches and provision will be made for driving across the dam.

The Ladies' Aid Society will banquet their families in town hall Saturday evening. The society will next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Oleker.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Oct. 18—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grindle of New Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Herber of Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Feicht of Locust Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley last Sunday.

P. F. Myers and son of Canfield made a short call here last Sunday.

Lawrence and Elmer Painter of Leontia visited Mrs. Lucy Painter Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Johnston made a short call on Mrs. J. R. Sauerwein last Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Rupert of North Lima called on friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John F. Calvin of Columbiana was in town last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Wisler of Leontia visited at Joe Lesh's last Sunday.

Mari Coy built a fine milk house for Geo. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin of Michigan are visiting at Mennonite Brothers' and Mrs. Floyd Weikart of Greenford called on Sol Martin last Sunday.

Miss Dora Knopp of Leontia was a week-end visitor of Nancy Blosser. Aaron Brubaker and family have moved into their new bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker of Leontia made a short call on his brother Aaron and family last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Henry Nelder and daughter Erma of Columbiana called on her mother, Mary Bare, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Love of Youngstown visited Mr. and Mrs. D. Longnecker.

Politics is a game of draw in which the ante goes higher every year.

Even at a rest cure the doctors have to exercise their patience.

Life is an obstacle race to the people who jump at conclusions.

THE OLD HUNTING GROUNDS

(Copyright.)

NORTH JACKSON

Oct. 18—Frank Jones of Austintown spent several days the first of the week with H. A. Stroup and family.

Miss Rutheda Golder of Cleveland spent Sunday here with her parents.

On account of the illness of Rev. Bosis, there were no services at the Union church Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marie Howard of Ellsworth spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Greenmeyer spent Sunday in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Shively entertained their daughters and son, with their families, Sunday.

Will Smith and wife and R. E. Flick, wife and son are visiting relatives in Pennsylvania.

On account of the health of their daughter, Bertha, Dr. N. W. Hoge and family of Alliance, formerly of this place, will leave for California.

W. A. Witherspoon and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. Jones in Youngstown Sunday.

J. W. Flick and a number from Youngstown attended the bankers' convention in Akron Thursday.

L. A. Snider is building a garage. Several from here attended the funeral of G. A. Webb in Ellsworth Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrman called on Mrs. Monroe in Jefferson Tuesday.

The Presbyterian ladies gave their church a fall cleaning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hardesty and Howard Stroup of Warren spent Sunday with their parents.

Frank Golder of Perkins was in the village Monday.

Having secured a new minister, there will be regular services in the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Handwork of North Jackson the descendants of Jacob and David Ohl of Austintown township held their first annual reunion. All present greatly enjoyed the occasion, vocal and instrumental music, social intercourse and a big dinner at noon being features.

The guest list included Mrs. Jacob Ohl, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stroup, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stroup, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ohl, Francis Stroup, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Handwork, Miss Bessie Forney, Howard, Mark and Wayne Ohl of Jackson, Chauncey Ohl, Mrs. Lieberman, Miss Eliza Leibman of Youngstown, Mrs. James Ohl of Girard and F. B. Jones of West Austintown.

HICKORY

Oct. 18—Everybody attend the school fair, rag ball and pie social in District No. 1 school in Goshen Friday evening.

The 16th session of the Green Township S. S. Union will be held at Concord church, Sunday, Oct. 22. Program, Afternoon Session—2:30 sun time. Devotional and Song Service, Joseph Justice; recitation, Harold Riley; solo; some glimpses of S. S. Conventions, M. B. Tempina; music; address, Aaron Esterly, Youngstown; business meeting. Evening session—7:30 sun time. Song Service, conducted by Charles Riley; recitation, Edith Hively; duet; address, Rev. Case of Ellsworth; quartette; invocation.

Miss Cora Dushman and brother Elmer of Philadelphia are spending two weeks with their uncle, Isaiah Dushman, and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Leimbach and daughter of Greenford visited Sunday with John Gordon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waitman and Miss Cora Dushman visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paulin in Salem.

Mrs. C. D. Bowman visited Mrs. Maggie Hively in Greenford last Tuesday.

A big gas well on John H. Miller's farm was struck last Wednesday.

James Dushman and sister Rachel and Earl Minard visited Bertha and Martin Kenrich Sunday in Greenford.

Those who attended the Greenford grange fair from here last Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Douth and son Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Paulin, son Ralph, Miss Mata Haller, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McDonald, Miss Rachel Dushman, Earl Minard, Mrs. John Gordon, son Harry and daughter Lola and Miss Hazel Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Esterly and daughter of New Buffalo visited Sunday with R. R. Esterly and family.

Miss Mildred Hoffman spent Monday night with Lola Ruth Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnil Weingart of Goshen visited Sunday with Harvey McDonald and wife.

Politics is a game of draw in which the ante goes higher every year.

Even at a rest cure the doctors have to exercise their patience.

Life is an obstacle race to the people who jump at conclusions.

NORTH LIMA

Oct. 18—Communion services will be held in Good Hope Lutheran church next Sunday morning. Preparatory service Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The high school is planning to hold a Halloween social on the evening of Oct. 31.

The high school will have a lecture course this winter, and tickets are now on sale. The tickets are one dollar each, and children 50c. Seats may be reserved by paying 25c extra. There are five numbers and the first, the Musical Art Quartette, comes Nov. 2. The other numbers are the Virginians, The Japanese Entertainers, Coleman Hatfield, Lecturer, and the Wasser Entertainers. Dates for these will be announced later.

Mrs. Mary McGill entertained the ladies of the Searchlight Literary Club at their first meeting of the season Wednesday afternoon.

G. E. Bloom and wife are enjoying a few weeks with Mrs. Bloom's brother, Will Miller, and family near Huntington, Pa.

Freeman Mentzer and Thurman Haug, while driving in the former's Ford car near Petersburg last week, collided with a car driven by James McClellan of Youngstown. Both cars were overturned, and Mr. McClellan was almost instantly killed. His companion, Mr. Schultz, escaped with minor injuries, and did Mr. Mentzer and Mr. Haug.

Miss Helen Parker and F. C. Kaercher and wife of Youngstown were guests of Mrs. Longstreet and daughter Sunday.

Members of the Mennonite church attended a conference of Sunday school workers held at Midway church Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esenwein and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fox of Leontia were Sunday callers at Charles Fox's.

The body of Frank Haller of New Middletown was brought here for interment last Thursday.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Solomon Heck of Youngstown was held Saturday from the Reformed church here, and interment made in the cemetery adjoining.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder of West Austintown were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lipp and son of Columbiana called on K. T. Sanders Sunday.

Freeman Anderson and wife of Warren and Mrs. Jeremiah of Sharon were visitors at Dr. Chamber's a few days.

Mrs. Sarah Dodge of Erie, Pa., and Mrs. W. E. Glenn of Youngstown were guests of their brother, Charles Double, and family, and at J. E. Glenn's, Sunday.

PATMOS

Oct. 18—Patmos school fair, held last Wednesday evening, was a complete success. An excellent program was given before a large and appreciative audience. The exhibit was excellent. The pie social held after the entertainment netted over $6 for the school.

Mrs. W. E. Middleton and Miss Alice Burton went to Canfield Friday to attend a meeting of the Canfield W. C. T. U.

Miss Alice Burton, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. L. Middleton, returned home to Alliance Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. Middleton and daughter Gladys went to Alliance Sunday evening enroute to Akron where they will visit their uncle, E. L. Paxson, and attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U.

Bunker Hill W. C. T. U. will hold an oyster supper in the Patmos school house this evening.